

Santa Gertrudis EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE in Carcass Competitions

Cattle farmers strive for efficient and profitable meat production. The slaughter quality of breeds, such as the Santa Gertrudis, is consequently an important aspect for profitable cattle farming. With carcass competitions the red meat value chain is emphasize and the best value from the classification of the carcass is obtained. The Santa Gertrudis has proven itself over the past few years by excelling in these competitions.

ACHIEVEMENTS:

- 2015 Winner Carcass & Champion carcass competition at Hartland show (Middelburg, MP)
- 2017 Winner slaughter ox competition at Amalia show
- 2018 Winner slaughter ox competition (on the hoof) at Delareyville show
- 2018 Winner slaughter ox competition (group of 3 carcasses) at Delareyville show
- 2019 Winner slaughter ox competition at Delareyville show
- 2021 Winner super ox champion carcass competition at Delareyville show

Winner of the carcass and champion carcass competition – Mr Christoff van der Merwe at Hartland show, 2015. The dressing percentage for the group of four carcasses was 65%.

Winner Group of three carcasses competition – Stellaland Santas at Delareyville show, 2018

Winner slaughter ox competition – Santarust at Delareyville show, 2019

Winner of the super ox champion carcass competition – Jumardi Santas at Delareyville show, 2021